Montreal, 14. January 2014

To whom it may concern,

This letter of recommendation is to confirm that Ms. Dariia Dziuba taught at Bouchereau Lingua International in December 2013/January 2014 for 80 hours in total as a freelance teacher of English as a Second Language.

Ms. Dziuba taught general English in our in-school immersion program, covering a variety of different levels and cultures. These particular ESL classes require special dedication on the part of the teacher, who would concentrate on the group's needs, in which Ms. Dziuba excelled. Ms. Dziuba was responsible for the support of her students throughout their learning, and since she is able to fully understand her students', not only needs, but also learning capacities and abilities, she is able to adjust her classes so that the students evolve and progress rapidly in their learning.

She has proven to be very professional, organized and creative, and an overall dynamic and engaging teacher. Her students were very satisfied with her teaching methods. I believe that Ms. Dziuba's attention to detail, patience, compassion and care for each individual's learning success will be of great aid to her successfully advancing in her career.

I strongly believe that Ms. Dziuba would be an ideal candidate for any relevant program and I personally wish her all the best in her future career.

Sincerely,

Dina Szathmary
